

To learn more about UNIX and NT commands and our computers:

- Read all of the information on your account form.
- Refer to the UNIX "man" pages.
- Refer to a UNIX tutorial book.
- Refer to the NT "help" buttons.
- Browse the Instructional WWW site: <http://www-inst.eecs.berkeley.edu/>
- Using a WEB browser, look in the documents under <http://www-inst.eecs.berkeley.edu/software.html>
<http://www-inst.eecs.berkeley.edu/connecting.html>
- Read any signs posted on the bulletin boards in the labs, and watch for current announcements in the login messages.
- Attend the UNIX Help Sessions offered by the XCF and CSUA student groups. Visit the XCF (311 Soda) or CSUA (343 Soda).

Questions may be sent to "root@cory" by email, but please do not send basic questions unless you have tried these other resources first. Also, all questions about your assignments should be sent to your instructor or TAs, not to "root@cory". Thanks!
