<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Spaz</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>one who is considered clumsy or inept—all the problems of the dork combined with physical clumsiness!</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Geek</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>one who is passionate about some particular area or subject, often an obscure or difficult one—often extremely smart about an irrelevant topic, like the characters and plot of the Lord of the Rings</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dweeb</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>person regarded as socially inept or foolish, often on account of being overly studious—at least such a person has an excuse, which makes them one step above the dork</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nerd</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>one who is passionate about learning/being smart/academia—i.e., the vast majority of EECS students!</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dork</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>one who has difficulty with common social expectations/interactions—and is usually not too bright either.</td>
