

Observation Notes by Mehershad Dahmubed

Interview#4

Interviewee: Anh

- I arrived 30 mins late
- wheelchair close to the entrance of the house
- sitting on chair
- 15" monitor laptop
- Weighs around 7-8 lbs
- most of the stuff is low lying
- table cluttered with paper
- waiting for football match to begin
- excel sheet open on personal laptop
  - got a table with time and days of week
  - symbols in bold on the side referring to peoples names
- different excel sheet
  - Excel sheet had different letters in caps and different colors
    - o Each letter was part of a legend with friends names
- Purpose was to be able to see what times his friends were free
- different colors for classes
- whole range of colors -> warm to cold, used
- questions making user think a little more
- Screensavers include buildings, nature.
- Advices us to consider building the application with the accessibility features like that for visually impaired people.